Excellence Group Breaks Ground in Montego Bay, Jamaica in Collaboration with Jamaica's Government Leaders

MONTEGO BAY, March 30, 2017- Excellence Group Luxury Hotels and Resorts, the hospitality leaders who recently announced plans for an all-inclusive luxury resort in Montego Bay, Jamaica, officially broke ground today in conjunction with Jamaica's highest esteemed leaders in tourism and government.

Alongside The Honourable Prime Minister Andrew Holness and the Ministry of Tourism, The Honourable Edmund Bartlett, Excellence Group revealed additional details of the highly anticipated, $110 million dollar project during the Ground Breaking ceremony.

Set to open its doors to guests in the first half of 2018, Excellence Oyster Bay will be the first adults-only resort of its kind in Jamaica's tranquil Montego Bay, conveniently located in Oyster Bay, just 30 minutes from the international airport.

Situated in an idyllic location in the Montego Bay area, the private peninsula sits surrounded by calm turquoise waters on one side and the glistening waters lagoon on the other. Historic Fallmouth town is also a short drive away.

The waterfront property will feature 325 suites, including 800 square feet junior suites and 2,000 square feet upper suites featuring expansive living spaces, panoramic ocean views, and direct beach access. Additionally, the property will house eight restaurants and seven bars onsite, all thoughtfully designed to cater to the whim of every individual guest. From upscale martini lounges to high-energy sports bars, guests will find a convenient array of options for every mood and taste, as well as an onsite tennis court and outdoor activities area, luxury spa, and archery range.

Excellence Group's CO-CEO, Mr. Monserrate Amengual stated, "We are excited to create a unique, world-class destination for Montego Bay Jamaica and its community, thereby, laying foundations for new opportunities for Jamaica and its people. Oyster Bay is a visionary resort designed to provide exceptional experiences in travel, hospitality, and luxury service. With every aspect thoughtfully designed, we are creating over 1500 jobs for Jamaicans during the construction phase as well as planning to employ a staff of 700 Jamaicans when the resort opens its doors. Oyster Bay will further position Jamaica as one of the world's leading travel destinations while creating jobs, increasing tourism, and providing overall economic growth."
